Kensington and Chelsea Pharmaceutical Needs Assessment

Supplementary Statement September 2013

NHS Kensington and Chelsea published its Pharmaceutical Needs Assessment (PNA) in March 2011. The responsibility to produce Pharmaceutical Needs Assessment now rests with Health and Well-Being Boards. The regulations allow a supplementary statement to be published explaining the changes to availability of pharmaceutical service since the publication of the PNA in 2011. Changes have been detailed below:

Since March 2011, the following changes have occurred, which have been detailed on the map below (highlighted in red):

- ABC Portobello Road closed and Chana Chemist opened at the same location
- ABC Notting Hill Gate has changed to Notting Hill Pharmacy (same location)
- Pyramid Pharmacy has opened at the Earls Court Medical Centre in Earls Court
- Tesco Pharmacy has opened in the Tesco Store at West Cromwell Road
- Chelsea Pharmacy has opened at 61-63 Sloane Avenue Chelsea
